- 1. Effective July 1, 2024, each share of common stock was split into two shares. "Average number of shares outstanding during the period" is calculated on the assumption that the stock split was implemented at the beginning of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025.

 2. Number of treasury shares, which are deducted from "Number of treasury shares at the end of the period" and "Average number of shares outstanding during the period," includes the Company's stock held by the trust of Employee Stock Ownership Plan.
- * Semi-annual financial results reports are exempt from review conducted by certified public accountants or an audit firm.
- * In domestic sales of the Nihon Kohden group, sales to public medical institutions (which include national hospitals, national universities, public agencies, and municipal hospitals) account for a relatively high percentage of total sales. Therefore, the bulk of orders tend to be concentrated in September and March due to these hospitals' budget executions. In particular, sales and income are highly concentrated in the fourth quarter of the fiscal year.
- * Earnings forecasts and other forward-looking statements in this release are based on information currently available and certain assumptions that the Company believes are reasonable. Therefore, they do not constitute a guarantee that they will be realized. Actual results may differ from such estimates due to unforeseen circumstances.

1. Qualitative Information on Financial Results for the Period

(1) Operating Results Analysis

During the term under review (April 1, 2025 to September 30, 2025), the global economic outlook remained uncertain due to escalating protectionism and fragmentation as well as prolonged uncertainty caused by geopolitical risks and policy trends in each country. In Japan, business sentiment in medical institutions declined and the proportion of operating deficits increased due to price and wage inflation, while each medical institution strove to implement task shifting and improve its operational efficiency. Internationally, overall demand for medical equipment remained steady, while there was uncertainty regarding proposed budget cuts to public health insurance in the U.S. and the effects of the economic slowdown in China. Medical institutions both in Japan and internationally have been promoting medical digital transformation, which includes data health, telemedicine, and utilization of AI and ICT, because they need to urgently improve the quality and efficiency of their medical care.

Under these circumstances, Nihon Kohden continued the implementation of its Three-year Business Plan, BEACON 2030 Phase II, which started in FY2024. The Company aims to achieve targets for three indicators: growth, profitability, and capital efficiency, by implementing six key measures including "Enhance product competitiveness", "Focus on growth of North America Business", and "Implement the reform of the profit structure".

Japan: Nihon Kohden concentrated on enhancing sales activities which match each market; the acute care hospital market, the small and mid-sized hospital market, and the clinic market. The Company also focused on its consumables and services business as well as strengthening its marketing and service capabilities, creating customer value which contributed to improving medical safety, patient outcomes, and operating efficiency. As a result of these measures, domestic sales increased, while capital expenditure in hospitals was cautious. Sales in the clinic, private hospital, and public hospital markets increased. Sales in the university market remained flat. Sales of Physiological Measuring Equipment increased favorably. Sales of Treatment Equipment and Other Medical Equipment remained flat, while sales of Patient Monitors decreased. As a result, domestic sales increased 1.0% over the first half of FY2024 to ¥66,880 million.

International: Sales in North America, Europe, and Asia & Other increased favorably. Overseas sales achieved double-digit growth on a comparable basis excluding the currency effect and the impact of the consolidation of Ad-Tech. Sales in North America showed double-digit growth, posting a significant increase in sales of neurology products including Ad-Tech as well as favorable sales of ventilators. Sales of Patient Monitors decreased compared to the strong growth in the same period of the previous fiscal year. Sales in Latin America decreased, mainly in Mexico and Columbia. Sales in Europe increased favorably, especially in Italy, Turkey, and Spain. In Asia & Other, sales in Thailand and Vietnam showed strong growth and sales in the Middle East & Africa also increased significantly due to large orders in Morocco. Sales of Physiological Measuring Equipment increased significantly. Sales of Treatment Equipment also achieved double-digit growth. Sales of Patient Monitors and Other Medical Equipment increased on a comparable basis and decreased on a yen basis. As a result, international sales increased 12.9% over the first half of FY2024 to ¥41,240 million.

As a result of the above, overall sales during the term under review increased 5.2% over the first half of FY2024 to $108,120 million. Operating income increased 31.8% to $6,741 million over the first half of FY2024, due to increased sales and the consolidation of Ad-Tech. The increase in operating income was also because of favorable gross profit margin due to higher selling prices and cost reductions of in-house products, as well as a decrease in inventory devaluation. Ordinary income increased 214.7% to $6,732 million and income attributable to owners of parent increased 876.7% to $4,524 million over the first half of FY2024, reflecting lower foreign exchange losses.

* The amounts are aggregated by region, based on the location of the Company or its consolidated subsidiaries.

(2) Financial Conditions Analysis

(i) Financial Position

Total assets at the end of the current fiscal period decreased by ¥11,696 million compared to the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥246,579 million.

Current assets decreased by ¥9,760 million to ¥173,324 million compared with the end of the previous fiscal year. This is mainly due to a decrease in notes and accounts receivable resulting from the collection from the end of the previous fiscal year.

Fixed assets decreased by ¥1,936 million to ¥73,254 million compared with the end of the previous fiscal year. This is mainly due to the depreciation and amortization of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets, as well as the impact of currency exchange rates.

Total liabilities at the end of the current fiscal period decreased by ¥4,217 million compared to the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥72,764 million. This is mainly due to a decrease in notes and accounts payable, provision for bonuses, and accrued income taxes.

Total net assets at the end of the current fiscal period decreased by \(\pm\)7,479 million compared to the end of the previous fiscal year to \(\pm\)173,815 million. This is mainly due to a decrease in capital surplus resulting from the additional acquisition of NeuroAdvanced Corp. shares, and foreign currency translation adjustments.

As a result, net assets per share decreased by \(\frac{4}{35.47}\) to \(\frac{4}{1.065.64}\) and the equity ratio increased by 1.0 percentage points from 69.5% at the end of the previous fiscal year to 70.5%.

(ii) Cash Flows

Cash and cash equivalents (hereinafter referred to as "funds") on a consolidated basis at the end of the current fiscal period increased by ¥6,474 million compared with the end of the previous fiscal year to ¥49,535 million.

The status of each cash flow and their factors in the current fiscal year are as follows.

(Cash flows from operating activities)

Funds obtained from operating activities increased by \(\frac{\pmathbb{4}}{3}\),852 million year-on-year to \(\frac{\pmathbb{1}}{1}\),740 million. This is mainly due to income before income taxes of \(\frac{\pmathbb{4}}{6}\),732 million, a decrease in trade receivables of \(\frac{\pmathbb{1}}{3}\),427 million, an increase in inventories of \(\frac{\pmathbb{4}}{4}\),108 million, depreciation and amortization of \(\frac{\pmathbb{2}}{2}\),164 million, and income taxes paid of \(\frac{\pmathbb{3}}{3}\),708 million. (Cash flows from investing activities)

Funds used in investing activities decreased by ¥1,365 million year-on-year to ¥2,001 million. This is mainly due to the purchase of property, plant and equipment, amounting to ¥1,116 million, and the purchase of intangible assets, amounting to ¥890 million.

(Cash flows from financing activities)

Funds used in financing activities decreased by \(\frac{\pmatrix}{1,854}\) million year-on-year to \(\frac{\pmatrix}{3,179}\) million. This is mainly due to cash dividends paid of \(\frac{\pmatrix}{2,609}\) million, decrease in deposits paid of \(\frac{\pmatrix}{7,247}\) million, and purchase of shares of subsidiaries not resulting in change in scope of consolidation of \(\frac{\pmatrix}{7,433}\) million.

(3) Consolidated Forecast for FY2025

The FY2025 full-year forecast for income attributable to owners of parent was revised to \(\xi$12,500 million (down \(\xi$2,500 million from its previous forecast), as the Company will record some expenses as extraordinary losses due to the implementation of Career Change Support Program and Next Career Support Program for Employees, which were announced in September 2025.

The overall sales forecast for FY2025 is ¥240,000 million as originally planned. The Company has revised its domestic sales forecast to ¥149,400 million (down ¥400 million from its previous forecast), reflecting lower-than-expected sales of locally purchased products, as the Company is focusing on selling in-house products. The Company continues to enhance sales activities and receive orders for medical equipment and IT systems that contribute to improving the quality and efficiency of medical care, while capital expenditure in medical institutions is still cautious. The Company has also revised its overseas sales forecast to ¥90,600 million (up ¥400 million from its previous forecast), reflecting greater-than-expected depreciation of yen in currency translation. In the first half of FY2025, overseas sales fell short of expectations, mainly in Latin America and Asia & Other. In the second half of FY2025, sales of Patient Monitors are expected to recover and sales of neurology products and ventilators are also expected to increase favorably in North America, as the Company expected at the beginning of the fiscal year. On the other hand, sales in Europe and Asia & Other are expected to be behind expectations, because it takes time to comply with laws and regulations such as radio equipment and transport of batteries, as well as delay in the recovery of demand for medical devices in China.

The FY2025 full-year forecasts for operating income and ordinary income remain unchanged at ¥24,000 million and ¥24,000 million, respectively. Although operating income fell short of its internal plan in the first half, the Company expects to be able to recover in the second half by improving gross profit margin and restraining the increase of SG&A expenses through the reform of the profit structure of the entire Group.

The Company's forecast for the second half of FY2025 is based on an exchange rate of 146 yen to the U.S. dollar and 168 yen to the euro.
